

Call for Educational Presentations

AGC Oregon-Columbia Chapter is now accepting proposals for a limited number of educational sessions that will be offered at the Summer Convention on Friday August 10 and Saturday, August 11, 2018.

Date and Location:

August 9–11, 2018
Sunriver Resort, Sunriver, Oregon

Theme for This Year's Convention

Engage: Be Relevant!

Chapter and Convention Background

AGC has served as the voice and choice of the commercial construction industry in Oregon and Southwest Washington since 1922. With nearly 840 member companies, AGC is the only trade association representing the full range of the commercial construction industry.

Our multiple-track format is geared towards mid- to senior-level management and emerging leaders.

Approximately 250 general and specialty contractors and associate members attend the Summer Convention. All educational sessions should be targeted towards these various attendee groups.

Topics

Proposals will be considered for stand-alone education sessions or part of a joint presentation.

Topics for education sessions should focus on how technology helps contractors do their jobs:

- Managing projects
- Software, apps, gadgets, tools
- 3D printing
- Bidding process
- Presentations
- Business continuity
- Managing human resources
- Communications with employees, on the jobsite
- Chasing work and how to get it
- Safety
- Legal compliance, hacking, ethics
- Social media
- Maintenance and upkeep of phones, tablets, laptops, computers, software
- Integrity, ethics, trust
- Generational differences

Presentation Format

- Sixty minutes in length
- No sales pitches
- All interactive formats welcome: group activities, panel discussion, buzz groups etc.
- Hands-on and interactive workshops are highly encouraged
- Provide a handout and/or other meaningful takeaway for attendees

We look forward to receiving your proposal.

Deadline close of business, Friday, February 9, 2018

Questions should be submitted electronically to Viktoria Schulz, events specialist, viktorias@agc-oregon.org.
