

Josh Tompkins Incoming Chief Executive Officer

Josh Tompkins has been selected to step into the role of CEO of the Associated General Contractors Oregon-Columbia Chapter, based in Wilsonville, Oregon, in May 2026. He will assume the CEO role on January 1, 2027.

Josh most recently served as president and CEO of the Washington County Chamber of Commerce and spent nearly a decade in the automotive industry as part of the Dick's Auto Group executive management team. Josh has significant construction trade association leadership experience, having worked as field manager and membership development manager for Associated Builders & Contractors, Inc., on the national level. Josh also spent time serving as president and CEO of the ABC Central Texas Chapter in Austin, Texas, for over two years before returning home to Oregon in the summer of 2016.

A graduate of the University of Oregon, Josh grew up in the construction industry in Southern Oregon and enjoys golf, travel, college football, and spending time with his wife, Samantha.
